

UPPSALA
UNIVERSITET

RADICALISATION

A LECTURE AND SEMINAR SERIES

Guest lectures open to all interested researchers and students. Seminars open to researchers and Phd candidates with an interest in the field (in English)

14 FEBRUARY

10:15-12:00 Venue: Bertil Hammer salen, Blåsenhus

APPROACHING RADICALIZATION - AN INTRODUCTION TO A CONTESTED CATEGORY

Per-Erik Nilsson, Associate Professor Sociology of Religion and Director of CEMFOR Uppsala University

NOT ANOTHER BLOODY PROBLEMATISATION: 'RADICALISATION' AND ITS DISCONTENTS

Matthew Francis, Phd Sociology of Religion, Research Fellow, Lancaster University

13 MARCH

10:15-12:00 Venue: Bertil Hammer salen, Blåsenhus

JIHADDISHIP: FROM RADICALIZATION PROCESS TO DERADICALIZATION

Marco Nilsson, Associate Professor Political Science and Lecturer Jönköping University

25 APRIL

10:15-12:00 Venue: Bertil Hammer salen, Blåsenhus

TRAVELLING REVOLUTIONARIES AND FOREIGN FIGHTERS: BETWEEN MYTH AND REALITY?

Nir Arielli, Associate Professor of International History at the University of Leeds

9 MAY

10:15-12:00 Venue: Eva Netzeliussalen, Blåsenhus

HOW POLITICAL VIOLENCE BECAME TERRORISM

(AND WHAT MEANS FOR THINKING ABOUT TERRORISM AND RADICALIZATION TODAY)

Lisa Stampnitzky, Lecturer in Politics, University of Sheffield

Each Lecture will be followed in the afternoon (13.15-15) by a seminar open to researchers and Phd candidates with an interest in the field. For more information on topic and location see www.crs.uu.se

CEMFOR
CENTRUM FÖR MÅNGVETENSKAPLIG FORSKNING OM RASISM
www.cemfor.uu.se

religion & society
Centre for the Study of Religion and Society